POOR SUPPORT BY ST. LOUIS

Three Teams Likely to Prove Failures Financially There

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—The answer to "Will St. Louis Support Three Big League Ball Clubs?" is found in a table showing an estimate of the daily attendance at Robinson field, Sportsman's park and Federal field for this season. It is NO.

So far St. Louis has not supported three big league ball clubs, and really neither circuit can claim victory in the great battle at the gate. Instead of a wild rush and crash at the turnstiles to view the athletes galloping around the green lot, this spring has brought an unexpected decrease in patronage of the national pastime.

We submit the following list, registered daily since the opening of the season:

BEST OUTDOOR SPORT.

New York, May 20.—Pete Richards, the West Indian, who has come all the way to the United States to learn about the game of baseball from John J. McEraw, says that that form of sport is growing in popularity in Santo Domingo, where he lives. However, it will never take the place of revolution as the popular outdoor sport in the black republic.

OUR BEER IS A FOOD

Look well to your health for in that lies the real secret of youth and happiness.

Calumet Beer is an aid to health because it is a food and a tonic—an aid to the digestive organs.

The food is from the cereal ingredient it contains, which has been in a manner pre-digested in the process of malting.

The hops contain plenty of hop bitters, which are at once fragrant and a tonic.

TODAY'S GAMES.

American League.	Chicago at Philadelphia.
National League.	Brooklyn at St. Louis.
Federal League.	Kansas City at Baltimore.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

American League.	Philadelphia, Pa., May 20.—Clete pitched in wonderful form yesterday and Chicago shut out Philadelphia, 6-0. Clete, who singled with one out in the eighth, was the only home player to reach first. Only four balls were knocked to Chicago outfielders.
National League.	Brooklyn at St. Louis. New York at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at Chicago. Boston at Pittsburgh.
Federal League.	Kansas City at Baltimore. St. Louis at Buffalo. Chicago at Pittsburgh. Indianapolis at Brooklyn.

Three of them came in the third, forcing in a run. Ingersoll, who relieved Davenport in the ninth, was hit for two singles which, with a base on balls, enabled New York to score a run.

New York, May 20.—St. Louis pounded Brooklyn's pitchers hard here yesterday and won its fourth consecutive victory. The locals hit Rucker for eight hits and four runs, after which he was relieved by Warner, Beck and Dolan played a great game in the field and the latter, besides getting four hits in five attempts and scoring three runs himself, drove in two.

Brooklyn, May 20.—Frank Schulte, batting for Lavender in the seventh, knocked a triple which virtually cost Philadelphia the game yesterday. Brennan doubled in this inning and Schulte tripled, scoring the catcher with the tying run. Leach then singled and scored Schulte with the run which was enough to win. Lavender held the Philadelphiaans to two hits.

Philadelphia, May 20.—Brennan allowed Pittsburgh but three hits yesterday and Chicago won.

THINKS TIGERS ARE STRONGEST

Connie Mack Fears Jennings' Men Will Crowd Athletics

Philadelphia, Pa., May 20.—One of the greatest if not the greatest fights in the history of the American league is predicted for this season by Connie Mack, pilot of the champion Athletics.

"I wouldn't begin to try to guess, much less pick which club will finish first and which last," confided the mentor of the Athletics. "I look for a grand race to the end for a close finish with many clubs bunched."

"Of course I haven't seen the western clubs, except the Naps in one game, but the fact that Cleveland is in last place makes the other three teams appear strong. I realize Cleveland doesn't belong at the bottom and look for Birmingham's team to climb once they find their feet."

"Washington is certain to create trouble, for any club that has a Walter Johnson as pitcher is to be feared. Chance has the Yanks going well and Boston appears stronger than last season."

Detroit appears to be the club that is to be most feared, but of course I haven't seen Jennings' men and am hardly qualified to pass an opinion.

"I'm free to confess I am worried about the outcome. Naturally we want to win, but we know if we do win again it will only be after the hardest kind of a fight."

"Cleveland gave us a tough battle last season, but I don't think that will be a circumstance to the fight the club that wins this season's pennant will be forced to make."

Many entries for meet.

Michigan Prep School Stars Will Meet Last of Week.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 20.—More than 200 hundred prep school athletes have been entered in Michigan's interscholastic track and field meet, set for May 22 and 23. With the entry lists closed, the management has commenced active work in lining up the events and preparing the program. It is expected that 3 or more schools will be represented in the two days' games.

Michigan plays baseball through the east this week, meeting Syracuse twice, Cornell, Princeton, Swarthmore, and Penn. Captain Sider is taking twelve regular players with him, and is expecting to win at least four of the games. The star pitcher's arm is not in so bad shape it is reported, but he will probably pitch only one of possibly two games.

WITH THE BOXERS.

Indianapolis promoters are trying to arrange a clash between Jack Dillon and Battling Levinsky.

The winner of the Jimmy Chubbey-Jeff Smith bout billed for Sydney, N. S. W., next month will meet Eddie McGorty.

Harry Foley, former manager of Willie Ritchie, is now acting as pilot for Joe Azevedo, the Sacramento light-weight.

Harry Stone, an American boxer now in England, has been promised a match with Johnny Sommers, the English welterweight champion.

CLING KEEPS PROMISE.

Turns Down Biggest Offer Ever Made To Player.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 20.—Catcher Johnny Kling's word to Garry Herrmann is the only thing that bars him from accepting an offer made to him recently by the Pirates, according to Johnny Evers of the Braves.

"And I'll tell you that offer is one of the largest ever made a ball player," added Evers. "But Kling won't accept. The Pirates want him, realizing that unless they get some experienced catcher to take Gibson's place, if he is hurt, they are out of the pennant fight."

But when Kling quit the Reds he promised Herrmann that he'd never play with another ball team—at least not without Herrmann's sanction. And Kling will keep his word. Of course if Herrmann releases him from his promise you needn't be surprised if you hear about Kling becoming a Pirate one of these days."

COLLEGE STAR FANS 21.

Clinton, N. Y., May 20.—When Hamilton college defeated Rochester university's baseball team, 7 to 6, here last week, Pitcher Boyce of Hamilton equaled the college strike-out record. He retired twenty-one batters, a feat not equaled in college baseball since 1911. Two weeks ago at Rochester Boyce struck out twenty men.

"Pie" Way has been showing some regular stuff in the pitcher's box for the Yale varsity nine.
